Description
Observation
While looking at the screenshot there's clearly ipfail in the screen which already means that there's a missing key, what I fail to understand here, is the layer, since this is running on Grenache which is PowerVM but being used as a jumphost for s390 machines..

History

#1 - 2018-11-15 14:52 - szarate

Looks related: <https://openqa.suse.de/tests/2260242/file/autoinst-log.txt>

#2 - 2018-11-15 15:15 - coolo

This is not a missing key, this is a missing poem.

This is typed:

```
(echo AwZR8; bash -eox pipefail /tmp/scriptAwZR8.sh ; echo SCRIPT_FINISHEDAwZR8-$$?) | tee /dev/ttytscplp0

and what you see is:

```
ipfail /tmp/scriptAwZR8.sh ; echo SCRIPT_FINISHEDAwZR8-$?-) | tee /dev/ttytscip0

To me it looks like the terminal didn't accept any keys for a considerable time.

I see no indication that this is power related. But you will need to run the same test on multiple machines to verify.

- Subject changed from test fails in zypper_lifecycle - Possible missing keys on Grenache to [functional][u] test fails in zypper_lifecycle - Possible missing keys on Grenache

- Target version set to Milestone 22

coolo, as you are assigned, do you plan to work on this ticket or wait for QSF-u?

#5 - 2018-11-23 14:55 - szarate

- Subject changed from [functional][u] test fails in zypper_lifecycle - Possible missing keys on Grenache to [functional][tools][u] test fails in zypper_lifecycle - Possible missing keys on Grenache

- Description updated

- Assignee deleted (coolo)

Unassigning coolo for the time being, I think it's also a generic thing... adding the ticket to the list of ninjakeys
