Description
Cloud Sneak Peak to be released in week 43 (october 21-25) AJ/Vincent Untz/ will get a draft to us before end of week 41 Goals: • We promote that SUSE did a release of Cloud 2.0 in September based on openStack Grizzly (April release) • We promote that openSUSE will contain OpenStack Havanna October release (for testing/preparation for next Cloud release) • We promote that SUSE will release a new Cloud release with this beginning next year (To be Discussed) Notes: • openSUSE doesn't contain crowbar or chef, that's integrated in SUSE Cloud • We take this as a paragraph for the release notes • Needs to go out for OpenStack Cloud Summit Nov 4-8. • needs to be coordinated with SUSE Marketing • Demo on openSUSE will happen at SUSECon

Found old article on news.o.o - links might be useful.
OpenStack announced that SUSE is one of only eight companies that have committed to join and support the formation of the OpenStack Foundation

as a Platinum member.
