Description

After renaming a device, the network should be reloaded: <https://progress.opensuse.org/issues/64761>. After opening settings and closing without making any changes, there should not be restart or reload. The modules seem to either have wrong expectations or perform the wrong actions. We see these failures for all archs that the modules run.

Observation

openQA test in scenario sle-15-SP4-Online-ppc64le-yast2_gui@ppc64le-2g fails in yast2_lan_restart_bridge

Test suite description
